

COMMUNITY PREVENTION INSTITUTE

INSTITUTIONAL & COMMUNITY HAPPINESS

Goals

To develop happiness by educating members of the community to build a stable and interrelated family life

To reassure them of a clear social environment, which is characterized by empathy and harmony,

Target group: All members of society

Content

Training employees in state institutions on how to achieve institutional and societal happiness and its applications in institutional happiness programs for clients

Training courses

- Training of managers and supervisors to gain the happiness of employees.
- Training staff on institutional happiness.
- Train the staff to achieve happy customers and positive in the provision of services.
- Develop effective communication skills and influence others.
- Positive energy, happiness and skills use emotional intelligence

Program Entities

State and government departments and private institutions

